

Lecture Series

Islamic Thought and Modern Society (WS 2019/20)

Time: Thursdays, 16 – 18 o'clock

Room: (kleiner Raum)

Description:

This course will deal with ethical, philosophical, educational, theological, and normative ideas that have been discussed in both contemporary and historical Islamic societies. In doing so, the course will pay special attention to the relevance of the topics for the current questions and debates. This interdisciplinary course is open to all students and is held in English. However, Erasmus students are in particular welcome to attend the seminar. In this course, all lecturers of DIRS will teach. This means each lesson is reserved for one of the lecturers and deals with a separate topic. In this way, the course includes different approaches and offers a variety of content.

You will receive 5 ECTS points through regular participation in the lecture series and preparation of an essay at the end of the course.

List of Contributions

Lecturer	Lecture	Time
Abbas Poya	Human body in Qur'an and Sharia	17.10.19
Mahshid Risseh	Marriage, in the time of Islam and the contemporary time	24.10.19
Mahshid Risseh	Divorce and different sorts and its relevant discussions	31.10.19
Isabel Schatzschneider	Radicalised Muslims in Germany: A Criminal Law Response	07.11.19
Hadil Lababidi	Applied Islamic ethics – How modern medicine challenges Islamic ethics I	14.11.19
Hadil Lababidi	Applied Islamic ethics – How modern medicine challenges Islamic ethics II	21.11.19
Muhammed Ahmed	Many Faces of Salafiyya: Muslim reformist thought at the turn of the 20th century	28.11.19
Gang Li	Modernization of Islamic education in China	05.12.19
Maha El Kaisy-Friemuth	History of Muslim-Christian Relations	12.12.19
Ali Alemdar	Historical development of the Qur'an interpretation from the beginning of the revelation till today	19.12.19
Ali Alemdar	The effects of modern Qur'anic interpretation on today's German society	09.01.20

Mohammed Nekroumi	Contribution to the Qur'anic Conception of the Common Good. Hermeneutical Foundations	16.01.20
Farid Suleiman	Happiness for Dummies. Al-Ghazali's Kimiya-yi sa'adat as a layman's guide on how to attain the eternal bliss	23.01.20
Tarek Badawia	Cultural and religious plurality as a challenge: What kind of religious education do we need?	30.01.20
Eva Kepplinger	Which ethical basis for today's legal thinking? An analysis of Ṭāhā 'Abd ar-Raḥmān's i'timāniyya-theory	06.02.20